

Miles Beller

Miles Beller is an artist and writer. As an artist, Beller has exhibited his paintings throughout the United States. Beller artwork has a close association to a comic theme where he has significant experience. He has been represented by the Hilderbrand Gallery in New Orleans.

Additionally, Miles Beller is a Los Angeles consulting editor of the Carl Jung Institute's Psychological Perspectives and is media critic for HollywoodNet. Beller has written for Artweek, The New York Times, Harper's Bazaar, and Life Magazine. He is also co-editor of American Datelines, a journalism anthology of notable reporting from 1700 to the present, and is working on a biography of Robert E. Sherwood, author of The Petrified Forest and The Best Years of Our Lives.

Beller is married to television executive Laurette Hayden, and they live in West Los Angeles.

Source: www.amazon.com